- A cleaning charge will be made to the hirer in the event that restricted items, mentioned above, are taken onto the inflatable, or the inflatable is returned in a condition beyond what would be expected from normal use.

- On NO account, after agreeing the positioning (installation) of our equipment should the customer attempt to reposition or alter the set up of the equipment. If the customer requires the equipment to be repositioned we must be consulted and a small charge may be applied.

Bouncy Heaven holds public liability insurance which indemnifies the company and not the hirer. We shall ensure that our equipment is properly maintained and erected in a safe and proper manner. We shall also give two copies of the rules to the hirer who will sign and return one copy to the company on delivery.

It is the responsibility of the hirer to follow these rules and ensure that there is satisfactory supervision while the equipment is being used.

Should the hirer wish, adequate public liability insurance may be available through the insurance company used for your normal home insurance, for the period of the hire.

Please be vigilant and sensible but above all be safe and have fun.

I agree to the above conditions.
